Muskurahate Report for Session 2020-21

➤ Donation during COVID-19 Pandemic

The college management also helped the staff members who were staying in the college during second lockdown by providing them with food and essentials. When the pandemic situation settled down, the college reopened on 21st January, 2021 to work in offline mode. On this day, all the faculties and staff members of the college assembled in the college auditorium. The event was conducted by Dr. Anand Nighojkar, Principal and Mr. Satvinder Singh, CEO welcomed all the staff members in the campus. He also felicitated Class III and Class IV staffs who were serving their duties in the campus during lockdown. An appreciation letter along with a packet of sweets was distributed to these staff members as a token of remembrance. The event was followed by lunch for all the staff members organized by the management.
